Ontario Report Card

Survey of Ontarians

Date: 29 / 05 / 2025
Project: 82654-082

Methodology

Method

Online survey among respondents 18 years of age or older. (Ontario sample: n= 1,025).

This included:

- n=450 Greater Toronto Area residents
- n=296 Toronto (metro) residents

Respondents were randomly recruited using LEO's online panel. Data from the Alberta and British Columbia OMNIs collected during the same period are presented throughout the report for comparative purposes.

Weighting

Results were weighted according to age, gender, region, and education to ensure a representative sample of the Ontario population (see respondent profile section).

When

Data collection from May 23 and 25, 2025.

Margin of error

No margin of error can be associated with a non-probability sample (i.e. a web panel in this case). For comparative purposes, though, a probability sample of 1025 respondents would have a margin of error of $\pm 3.1\%$, 19 times out of 20.

Significant differences

Data shaded in pink  indicate a significantly higher proportion than that of other respondents.

Rounded data

The numbers presented have been rounded up. However, the numbers before rounding were used to calculate the sums presented and might therefore not correspond to the manual addition of these numbers.

Key Highlights (1/2)

Some of the key highlights of our survey ...

1

Direction of the Province: Only a third of residents (36%) believe Ontario is headed in the right direction with just 4% indicating it is going strongly in the right direction. In contrast, half of Ontarians (51%) believe it is on the wrong track.

- Men and older Ontarians are most positive, while women and young-middle aged residents are most negative. Regionally, those in the East have softer negative sentiments than those in the rest of the province.

Top Issues for Ontarians: The most important issue for Ontarians right now is housing prices/affordability, particularly among Ontarians aged 18-54, followed by healthcare which is more important to older Ontarians aged 55+.

- Men in Ontario showed particular concern for the provincial economy, while those aged 55+ are more concerned about USA tariffs, trade sanctions, and Trump.

Approval of Provincial Party Leaders: Nearly half of Ontarians (47%) approve of the way Doug Ford has performed in his job; a third showed approval of Liberal leader Bonnie Crombie and/or NDP leader Marit Stiles (33% each). While most say their opinions of the leaders are unchanged from six months ago, across the board, significantly more are likely to say their opinions have worsened.

- Premier Ford's approval rating is comparable to BC Premier David Eby (51%) and Alberta Premier Danielle Smith (44%). The proportion of Ontarians who say their opinion of Ford has worsened is on par with that of residents of BC who say the same of Eby (27% and 24%, respectively), less than that of Albertans who say the same of Smith (40%).

Doug Ford and Progressive Conservative Party Performance: Most residents feel Doug Ford and the Progressive Conservative Party have done a good job preparing for USA tariffs/trade sections (53%) and/or managing relations with the Federal Government. Far fewer believe a good job is being done handling housing affordability (17% vs 68% bad job), poverty (16% vs 64% bad job), and/or homelessness (15% vs. 65% bad job).

- Access to family doctors is also of note with two-thirds (63%) giving the Premier and his government a poor rating, especially outside of the Hamilton/Niagara region.

Key Highlights (2/2)

Some of the key highlights of our survey ...

2

Ontario Place Development: Half of Ontarians (47%) oppose the relocation of the Ontario Science Centre from Don Mills to Ontario Place on Toronto's waterfront, with 27% holding strong opinions. Three in ten (30%) approve of the plan, while one-quarter (23%) are unsure. Comparatively, a higher proportion (38%) favourably view a plan that would see Ontario Place developed to include a mix of public parkland and private operated facilities such as a wellness centre and underground parking. Four in ten (43%) hold an unfavourable opinion (24% "very") and 20% are unsure.

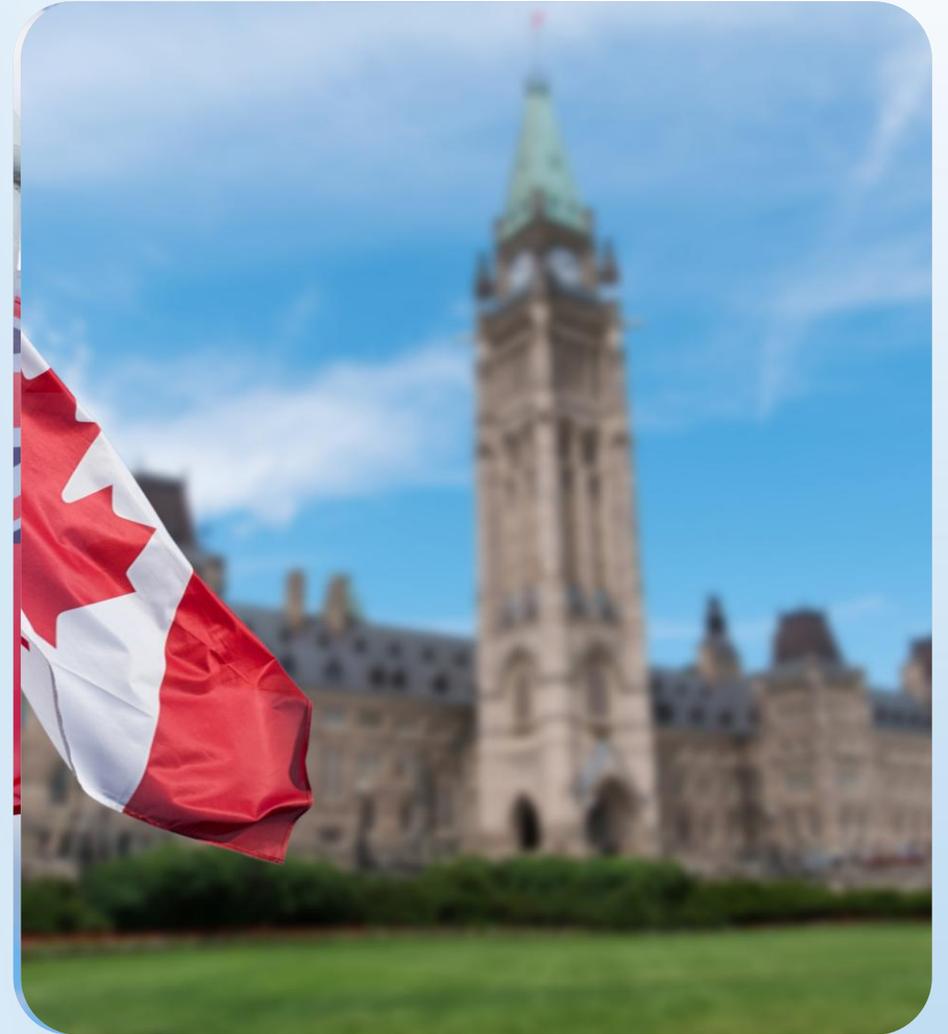

- Men and young-middle-aged adults are more in favour of both plans, while older adults are less in favour and women are more likely to admit that they're unsure.

3

Mayor Chow's Performance: Torontonians are somewhat on the fence about Mayor Chow's performance. Half (48%) approve of the way the mayor has performed in her job. However, only one-in-ten (10%) strongly approve of the job she is doing while four-in-ten (42%) disapprove of her performance; in fact, 17% strongly disapprove. The remaining one in ten are unsure.

Provincial Leaders and Issues

DASHBOARD OF KEY METRICS

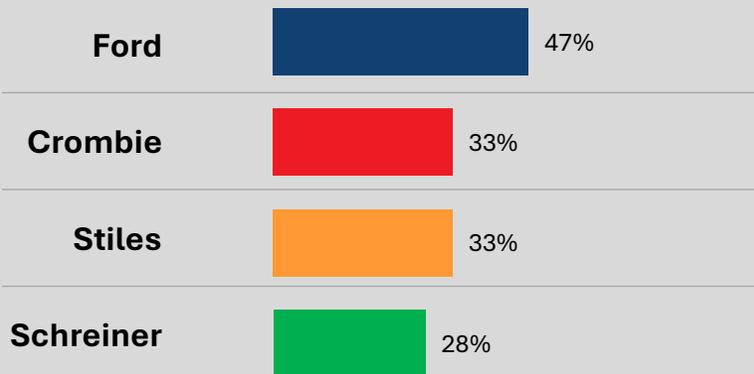

Most Important Issue Facing ON

Housing prices/affordability and healthcare are currently the most important issues to Ontarians. One-in-ten also regarded inflation/rising interest rates, the economy, and USA trade relations as the most important issue.

Leader Approval Ratings

Public approval for the Progressive Conservative Party of Ontario Leader Doug Ford is highest with nearly half of Ontarians generally approving of the way he performs his job. Liberal and NDP leaders Crombie and Stiles showed equal approval while Green Party of Ontario Leader Mark Schreiner sits slightly lower.

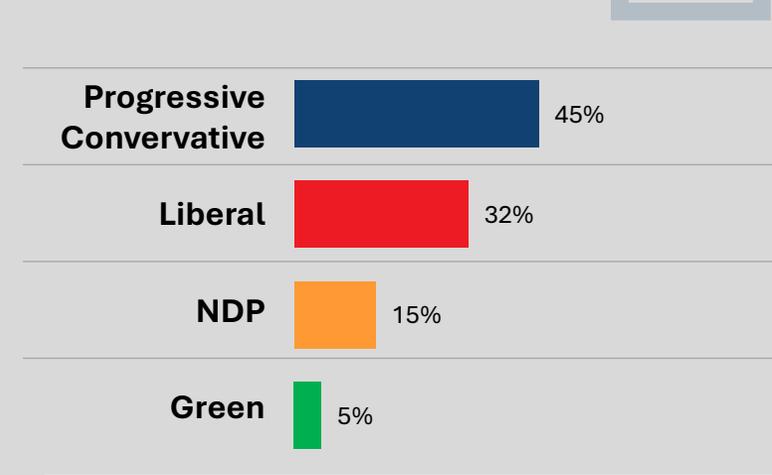

Approval Ratings of Current Government on Key Issues

The Progressive Conservative government's handling of various issues has received mixed reviews, although most say a good job is being done preparing for the USA tariffs and trade sanctions (53%) and/or managing relations with the Federal Government (51%).

ON Provincial Voting Intentions

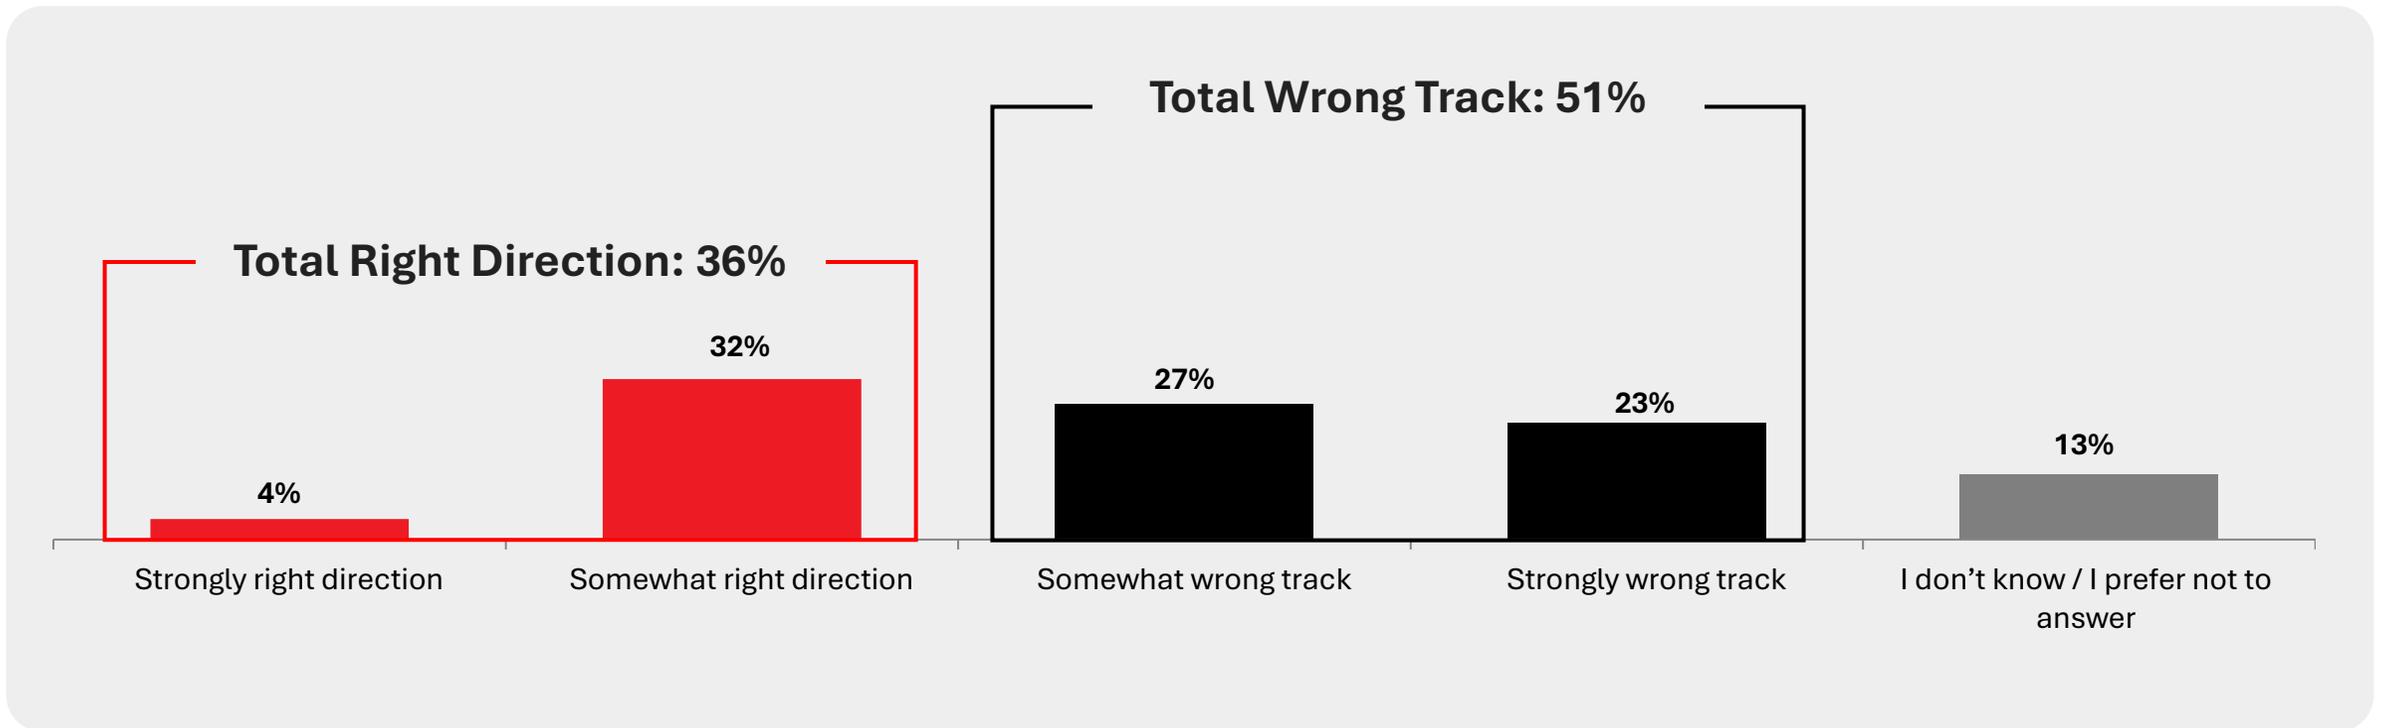

The Progressive Conservative Party currently leads the Liberals provincially by 13-points among decided voters; twice as many intend to vote Liberal compared to the NDP.
